High quality details and premium materials

The XSR900 is fitted with high quality materials throughout. From the superb cockpit detailing, drilled fork caps and forged aluminum foot controls through to the dual colour and dual stitched seat – as well as racer-inspired details like the quick release fasteners and folding passenger pegs – the look and feel of this premium sport heritage bike inspires lasting pride of ownership.

Flexible and relaxed riding position

You'll find that the ergonomics on this outstanding sport heritage bike give you all the flexibility and versatility you need in different types of riding – sports, urban or relaxed. Its slightly rear-biased riding position with wide controllable handlebars give that pure roadster feel – and the relaxed foot position and "sit-in" not "sit-on" seat with rear hump provides a comfortable and secure riding feeling.

Historic Yamaha Racing influenced design

The XSR900's pure and purposeful design offers a unique blend of timeless sports styling combined with references to Yamaha's legendary Deltabox-framed race bikes of the 1980s. Details like the gap between the café style humped seat and racer-inspired fuel tank – as well as minimalist side panels and hidden rear lighting underline its position as the ultimate Faster Son.

High performance brakes and suspension

No compromises have been made when it comes to the XSR900's technical specification that includes a Brembo radial master cylinder and 298 mm dual front discs that gives you high levels of braking power and precise controllability. Fully adjustable USD forks and link-type rear suspension system are easy to set up to suit your needs, and Yamaha's latest superlight Spinforged wheels minimise unsprung weight for responsive handling performance.

Signature XSR full LED lighting

The XSR900 continues with the signature round headlamp that characterizes every Yamaha Sport heritage bike, and now features full LED lighting with a split projector and half round position lamp. The hidden taillight has a smoked appearance that enhances the bike's pure and timeless looks – while compact and bright LED flashers complete lighting package.
